

Read: Deuteronomy 1:1-8

Every new year offers fresh opportunities and challenges. To improve our lives, we must believe that God has prepared blessings for us, setting aside feelings of unworthiness. Trusting in God's promises is crucial, as dwelling on the past or letting fear hold us back can hinder our ability to see His work. By recalling our history with God and asking for the Holy Spirit's guidance, we can be ready to receive His blessings.

Gracious God, as we begin this new year, we want to be ready for whatever you have prepared. Awaken us each day to the newness of life in you. Amen.

Read: Deuteronomy 1:1-8

Every new year offers fresh opportunities and challenges. To improve our lives, we must believe that God has prepared blessings for us, setting aside feelings of unworthiness. Trusting in God's promises is crucial, as dwelling on the past or letting fear hold us back can hinder our ability to see His work. By recalling our history with God and asking for the Holy Spirit's guidance, we can be ready to receive His blessings.

Gracious God, as we begin this new year, we want to be ready for whatever you have prepared. Awaken us each day to the newness of life in you. Amen.

Read: Deuteronomy 1:1-8

Every new year offers fresh opportunities and challenges. To improve our lives, we must believe that God has prepared blessings for us, setting aside feelings of unworthiness. Trusting in God's promises is crucial, as dwelling on the past or letting fear hold us back can hinder our ability to see His work. By recalling our history with God and asking for the Holy Spirit's guidance, we can be ready to receive His blessings.

Gracious God, as we begin this new year, we want to be ready for whatever you have prepared. Awaken us each day to the newness of life in you. Amen.

Read: Deuteronomy 1:1-8

Every new year offers fresh opportunities and challenges. To improve our lives, we must believe that God has prepared blessings for us, setting aside feelings of unworthiness. Trusting in God's promises is crucial, as dwelling on the past or letting fear hold us back can hinder our ability to see His work. By recalling our history with God and asking for the Holy Spirit's guidance, we can be ready to receive His blessings.

Gracious God, as we begin this new year, we want to be ready for whatever you have prepared. Awaken us each day to the newness of life in you. Amen.